2023 RMAG Mentorship Program

Goal of the Program

To provide young professionals, students, and transitioning /professionals with an experienced professional mentor who can provide career path advice and technical mentorship.

Participants

- Mentors will be seasoned geologic professionals with roughly 5-10+ years' experience who are interested in aiding the career development of younger professionals and students.
- Mentees will be current geology students (graduate or undergraduate) or young geologic professionals with 0-10 years' experience who are interested in growing their career path and network. Mentees should be willing to take the initiative in this relationship.

Application and Selection

Participants shall fill out a short application including a bio, goals for joining the program. Using the submitted materials the membership committee will pair mentees and mentors.

Programming

- RMAG shall plan for a minimum of two mentorship events during 2023.
- Mentors and mentees are expected to attend these special events.
- Monthly meeting space for the mentee/mentor pairs will be provided at DERL.
- Mentors and Mentees will agree to meet up once per quarter minimum and are encouraged to attend the DERL monthly meetups.
- Pairs are also encouraged to meet over coffee, lunch, etc.

Timing

Recruitment of mentors and mentees will be conducted in June and July 2023. Selection of pairs will be done in August 2023. The program runs from September 2023 to June 2024.
