

A renowned oil producer with over 2,400 drilling locations in downtown Denver is currently seeking a Senior Geotechnical Engineer to provide geological, geophysical and administrative support for their Geoscience Department. The ideal candidate will have a strong background in geoscience workflows, data and software along with a creative problem-solving mindset.

General responsibilities include:

- Daily support for the Petra and SMT Kingdom projects including; well and production updates, LAS and raster log loading, 2D/3D seismic loading, formation tops and zone data loading, and project troubleshooting
- Create maps and cross sections in tandem with geoscience department colleagues
- Support operations geology team through daily data loading, operated and non-operated well tracking and updating
- Create and maintain geoscience databases for archival purposes and day to day functionality and usefulness
- Maintain well files as it pertains to geoscience information including the cataloging and filing of hard copy log and report data and electronic filing of the same
- Supports maintenance of geoscience equipment; plotter, log plotter, etc.

Knowledge and Skills include:

- Minimum of 5 years' experience with Petra and SMT Kingdom (Petrel is a plus)
- High proficiency in data loading including log data, zone data, seismic data, cultural data, grid data, etc.
- Well versed with IHS Enerdeq and Lognet
- Experience at handling requests from various departments and working in a highly active multidisciplinary team
- Proficiency with Microsoft Office Suite software (Excel, Word, PowerPoint, Access) with the ability to create and maintain geoscience databases

Benefits:

- Health, Dental, and Vision Insurance
- Health Savings Account (HSA)
- 401k Plan - matching up to 6%
- Life Insurance, STD, & LTD
- Tuition Assistance
- Paid Holidays & PTO
- Employee Assistance Program
- Paid parking or bus pass

This is a visible position that offers a challenging environment and room for growth. The compensation for this position is between $80k - $123.5k/ yr. Please apply directly on our website at www.aimhiredenver.com for immediate consideration.

AimHire is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer.